MISSION STATEMENT

Beta Alpha Psi (BAP) is an international honor and service organization for accounting, finance, and information systems. BAP provides opportunities for development of technical and professional skills to complement university education; participation in community service; and interaction among students, faculty, and professionals.

CANDIDATE REQUIREMENTS

- Declared major in Accounting, Finance or Information Systems.
- Completed a 3000 level Accounting or Finance course in addition to one and a half years of college courses.
- GPA: 3.2 or above – overall AND in upper division accounting courses (3000 level and above)
- Must have at least two semesters remaining prior to graduation.
- Fulfill required Participation Hours during candidacy semester (see below).

MEMBERSHIP REQUIREMENTS

- Pay $110 dues – $65 one-time national dues plus $45 annual chapter dues
- Must complete 32 Participation Hours during the semester as follows:
  - Complete 12 Professional Hours – attendance at weekly professional meetings count toward this requirement. Meetings are held on Tuesdays from 12:00-12:50pm (must attend at least 8 of 12 meetings).
  - Complete 12 Service Hours – volunteering at the tutoring lab counts toward this requirement. Up to 5 hours of Non-BAP sponsored service activities may count towards this requirement.
  - Complete 8 Additional Hours of either professional or service hours
- Attend Initiation Lunch meeting – Tuesday, April 11 from 12:00 to 2:00 PM
