In 1964, film maker Michael Apted filmed 20 British school children to see what would happen as they grew. After the first film, Apted revisited the children every seven years. This year, WSU will screen all eight of the Up documentaries.

First screening of 7 UP:

Thursday, September 29, in Room 206, Wattis Building, 2 PM

Other screenings will follow on October 20, November 17 and December 15 with more screening in the Spring 2017 Semester.

All screenings are free and open to everyone. All screenings will be accompanied by comments and discussions with faculty including Drs. Dan Bedford, Judy Elsey, Michael Vaughan and others.
