Ethics Day
March 28, 2017
6-8 pm, WSU Shepherd Union

Richard Richards Institute for Ethics
www.weber.edu/richardsinstitute

The mission of the Richard Richards Institute for Ethics at Weber State University is to teach and inspire ethical leadership in students, our communities, state and nation.

The Ethics Day keynote speaker will be Steve Starks, president of the Utah Jazz and Larry H. Miller Sports & Entertainment, and alumnus of Weber State University.

Contacts:
Matt Spencer, Executive Director of University Advancement
801-626-6568, matthewspencer2@weber.edu

Dave Steele, Richards Institute Board Co-Chair
801-725-3523, dave.steele@comcast.net

Joan Kendell, Richards Institute Board Co-Chair
801-450-5492, j kendell4@gmail.com

More info at:
www.weber.edu/ethicsday

Ethics Scholar Sponsorships
Support your local high school, students, and Weber State University

- Annual Commitment: $1,000
- High School & WSU Commitment: $2,000
- 3-Yr Annual Commitment: $3,000
- 2-Yr High School/WSU Commitment: $4,000
- 5-Yr Annual Commitment: $5,000

Local high school seniors and current WSU students will be eligible to win a $1,000 Ethics Scholarship towards tuition/fees at WSU. Students must submit a 500-word essay online on the value of ethics at www.weber.edu/richardsinstitute and click on “Scholarships.” Winners will be recognized at the Ethics Scholarship Banquet on March 28. Scholarship availability is based on scholarship sponsors. Donations are tax deductible.

Sponsored by
WEBER STATE UNIVERSITY
www.weber.edu/richardsinstitute