Farmington City Job Announcement
GIS Administrator / IT Specialist

GENERAL PURPOSE

Performs a variety of technical, working and advanced level duties associated with the administration and development or creation of digital maps and geodatabases through a geographic information system (GIS). Provides technical computer support for hardware and software for the City.

ESSENTIAL FUNCTIONS

Administers, coordinates and manages GIS activities throughout the City, including GIS databases, development, definitions, maintenance and implementation. Directs the integration of the GIS for City departments and general planning for the GIS system. Considerable knowledge of GIS software systems including ARC GIS suite of products; other computer software such as word processing, spreadsheet, and multi-media

Oversee the maintenance of the City’s networks, servers, workstations, laptops, printers, phone systems, and other various hardware and software components.

MINIMUM QUALIFICATIONS

1. Education and Experience:

   A. Graduation from a standard senior high school plus four (4) years of technical or college training in civil engineering, drafting, GIS computer science, plus geography/urban planning directly related to the above functions provided through professional workshops, in-service courses, or college courses,

      AND

   B. Four (4) years of responsible experience performing in a field directly related to the above functions with a strong emphasis on GIS system.

      OR

   C. An equivalent combinations of education and experience.

Competitive Salary D.O.Q. plus excellent benefits.

Job description and applications available at www.farmington.utah.gov or at Farmington City 160 S Main St. (801)451-2383. This position will be open until 5:00 p.m. Sept. 4, 2015. E.O.E.