Edna Ione Hall Scholarship

INTENT
In consideration of the efforts being made by Weber State University to obtain support for deserving students, George Hall and the Elliott-Hall Company have established the Edna Ione Hall Scholarship. This scholarship pays tribute to the life of Edna Ione Hall, who exemplified the “Renaissance woman.” Ione had a true spirit of adventure, a mind open to possibilities, a commitment to learning, and a passion for the arts and humanities.

CRITERIA
The Edna Ione Hall Scholarship will be awarded as follows:
1. The recipient should be majoring, minoring, or taking classes within the College of Arts and Humanities.
2. Preference will be given to international, out-of-state or minority students and/or to students with financial need.
3. The scholarship may be awarded to outstanding incoming or continuing students.
4. The scholarship may be awarded to the same student for multiple years, as long as the recipient maintains a minimum, overall GPA of 3.0.

SELECTION PROCESS
Recipients will be selected through screening of applications and nominations by a committee appointed by the Dean of the College of Arts & Humanities.

USES
The award may be used for tuition, fees, books, or other educational expenses deemed appropriate by the College.
