Matthew S. Browning Scholarship for Nontraditional Students

INTENT
In consideration of the efforts being made by Weber State University to encourage and support exceptional students, Kathryn Lindquist has established an endowment for the Matthew S. Browning Scholarship for Nontraditional Students in the Telitha E. Lindquist College of Arts & Humanities.

This scholarship honors the life, accomplishments, and legacy of Kathryn Lindquist’s great grandfather, Matthew Sandefur Browning (1859—1923). As a financier, inventor, philanthropist and statesman, Matthew Browning had a profound influence in the Ogden community, in the State of Utah and in the Western United States.

CRITERIA
The scholarship recipient:
1. Must have a declared major or minor in any department of the Lindquist College of Arts and Humanities.
2. Must have a minimum GPA of 2.5.
3. May be enrolled full or part-time.
4. Preference will be given to students who demonstrate service to the community;
5. to students who demonstrate financial need through their application (financial need does not need to be demonstrated through FAFSA);
6. and to students with children under the age of 18 (or minor).

USES
Tuition and fees, books, academic supplies, or other academic purposes deemed appropriate by the selection committee and department chair. If scholarship award amounts, when combined with other sources of scholarships and financial aid, exceed tuition and fees, the student may receive a cash disbursement for the remainder of the award.

SELECTION PROCESS
Recipients shall be selected through screening of applications and nominations by a committee of faculty members from the Lindquist College of Arts and Humanities.
