Marian C. Wakeling Scholarship in Theatre

INTENT
The intent of this scholarship is to recognize a student who exhibits this same love of learning and who never stops asking why. It should be a student who is not interested in just one specific part of theatre, but loves learning in general. In addition, it is to recognize a student who is uniformly recognized as a positive and uplifting force in the theatre area.

CRITERIA
The WSU Department of Performing Arts shall award the Marian C. Wakeling Scholarship according to the following criteria:

1. Recipients must have an overall G.P.A. of 3.2 or higher.
2. Recipients must be taking theatre classes to apply and must continue to take theatre classes while receiving the scholarship.
3. Preference may be given to theatre majors, theatre minors, or students seeking a bachelor’s of integrated studies with theatre as one area of emphasis.
4. The scholarship may be awarded either entirely to one student or as partial scholarships to two students.

SELECTION PROCCESS
The Marian C. Wakeling Scholarship recipient shall be selected from student applications and/or nominations by theatre faculty and staff by a committee made up of all theatre faculty and staff.

USES
Award amounts may be used to cover tuition and fees only.
