SkyView Excavation & Grading, Inc has an immediate opening for a Project Engineer/Construction Manager. Our services include Mass Excavation, Heavy Highway Excavation & Grading, Dam Construction and Reconstruction, Site Preparation and Utilities as well as Rock Crushing and Sand & Gravel Sales.

Essential Responsibilities:

- Will be responsible for providing technical information to the Project Manager, Superintendent and Subcontractors.
- Maintain an excellent working relationship with the customer and throughout the duration of construction projects.
- Communicate design details and project management to ensure efficient progress of the project.
- Respond to RFI’s
- Create layouts and detailed engineering for projects that stay within the budget, schedule and scope of the project.
- Project Close-out
- Submittals
- Assist Project Managers with change orders
- Create a schedule using the Primavera Contractor Software
- Meeting
- Cost Control

Required Skills:

- Knowledge of Microsoft Windows, Word & Excel
- Primavera Contractor Scheduling Program
- Must be able to do job estimating, prepare take-offs, knowledge of CAD drawings, etc
- Ability to read and understand plans and specifications as well as a technical understanding of construction means and methods
- Willingness to make suggestions, ask questions, and express opinions
- Must be able to communicate well

Education/Experience:

- 2-5+ years of field experience
- Bachelor’s Degree in Construction Management preferred

Contact Info: email resumes and cover letters to angie@skyviewexcavation.com