Have you ever wondered:

+ How to talk to your doctor?
+ How to navigate the U.S. healthcare system?

COMM 3230 is a Communication elective. No prerequisite required.

REGISTER NOW

Learn how our ideas about health and illness are shaped.
Increase awareness about diverse health identities.
Examine health and illness in various contexts (e.g., advertisement, public relations, or narratives).
Develop skills to effectively communicate as a patient, healthcare professional, community advocate, or family member.

WEBER STATE UNIVERSITY
To learn more, visit weber.edu/communication