- A Parent PLUS Loan is available to parents of dependent undergraduate students.
- The U.S. Department of Education will perform a credit check for the borrower to determine eligibility for the loan.
- The parent borrower is responsible for repaying the loan.
- PLUS loans have no grace period and they enter repayment once the loan is fully disbursed.
- If approved, notice will be sent to the parent borrower that explains the necessary steps in signing the online Master Promissory Note (MPN) with the Department of Education.
- The student must be enrolled for at least 6 credit hours.
- This request must be received by the Financial Aid Office before the last day of classes for the semester.

By signing this PLUS loan request form, I understand that any residual funding will be mailed to the student for whom this loan has been processed at the student’s current mailing address on file. I also agree to the credit check which will be performed by the Department of Education Loan Processor.
