'If Elizabeth Bennet had the washing of her own petticoats,' Sarah thought, 'she would be more careful not to tramp through muddy fields.'

Tempestuous Petticoats: Clothing & Costume in Literature

This course is a mash-up of costume history and literature. Together we will examine the role of fashion and costume in literature, television, film and theatre.

Dr. Sally Shigley & Prof. Catherine Zublin

11:30 • MWR
HNRS CA 2020 • CRN 32336 •
Main Campus • BC 317 • 3.0 CR