Wicked problems are societal problems that are difficult, if not impossible to solve because the problem is interconnected with other problems and transdisciplinary in nature. Wicked problems will be examined through sociocultural, economic, sustainability, and political frameworks and potential solutions will be addressed.

Dr Melina Alexander
with guest instructor
Dr Kathryn MacKay

Face to Face
CRN 30645
9:30am-12:10pm W