“Religion in Early Spain”
Honors 3900

MWF 8:30-9:20am LI 227

Judaism, Islam and Christianity through Early Spain’s Cultural Production
Taught by Dr. Electra Gamón Fielding

Learn about how Jews, Muslims and Christians lived together for over 800 years in Spain, the rich cross-cultural exchange between all three cultures, the eventual disintegration of their convivencia, and the repercussions of this cultural past in today’s Europe.

This class fulfills upper-division Spanish credit and European Studies credit