Global Health Practicum
NRSG 4850, REST 4850, CETR 3034

2018 Itinerary

Feb 7: Pre-trip Meeting
Mar 7: Pre-trip Meeting
Apr 4: Pre-trip Meeting
May 2: Pre-trip Meeting
May 17 - Leave the US
May 18-20: Bangkok
May 21-26: Mae Sot
May 27-30: Trek near Mae Sot
May 31-June 3: Siem Reap
June 4-9: Cambodia
June 10: Arrive in US
June 18: Debriefing meeting

Details

Trip Cost: $2,999
Includes: lodging, in country transportation, trek, sightseeing, a few group meals, and flights between Bangkok - Mae Sot - Siem Reap - Phnom Penh.

Does not include: flights from the US to Bangkok, or from Phnom Penh to the US.

Scholarships: Apply through study abroad office.

Credit Hours: 4 ($0 tuition charged, just the trip cost)

Come participate in International Service Learning with us!

• Bangkok, Thailand - floating markets & Buddha's
• Mae Sot, Thailand - Mae Tao clinic working with Burmese refugees in inpatient, outpatient & homecare settings
• Near Mae Sot - Trek in Umphang Jungle, visit Karen Hill tribe. maybe see wildlife
• Siem Reap - Angkor Wat ancient temple ruins
• Phnom Penh - train rural health clinic staff on neonatal resuscitation, including a small resuscitation device
• Certify in neonatal resuscitation as part of pre-trip meetings

Intended participants:

• WSU Nursing students (prefer license, but not required)
• WSU Respiratory Therapy students (prefer AAS completion)
• WSU DCHP students & faculty (prefer license, not required)
• Community members with current health professions license
• Family member or significant other of a participant
• All participants must be 18 or older, be a high school graduate, speak fluent English, and be healthy enough to participate in a 3 week international study abroad program

Apply now!
• Go to weber.edu/studyabroad, apply to participate
• Questions? Info meeting or email julierhodes@weber.edu

Information Meetings: Wed, 10/4/17 11:30am MH480 and 5pm MH304