

Bachelor of Science (BS) in Diagnostic Medical Imaging

Medical Emphasis - Graduation MAP

WEBER STATE UNIVERSITY

This is a suggested plan. Contact an advisor in the School of Radiologic Sciences (801-626-6329 or chp-radsci@weber.edu) to create a specific plan that best fits your academic needs. Remember, taking an average of 15 credit hours per semester facilitates timely graduation.

To be eligible for consideration to a bachelor's degree program from the School of Radiologic Sciences, students must be certified by the American Registry of Radiologic Technologists (ARRT). Please refer to the Associate of Applied Sciences (AAS) in Radiologic Technology Graduation MAP if not ARRT certified. Successful completion of the Radiologic Technology program and all general education requirements does not guarantee admission to a School of Radiologic Sciences bachelor degree program. Students must submit an application to the School of Radiologic Sciences by January 10th of each year.

Students who wish to receive a bachelor's degree from the School of Radiologic Sciences must fulfill all general education requirements or currently have an Associate of Science (AS) degree. Refer to the General Studies or Associate of Science in Health Sciences (Radiologic Sciences track) Grad MAPs for requirements for the AS degree.
