

Benefits of Being a Tutor

- Increased proficiency with and mastery of subject matter.
 - On-campus job that gives you experience in your field of choice within a higher education environment and a relevant discourse community.
 - Development of interpersonal and leadership skills.
 - Gratification of supporting fellow students' success.
-

"Tutoring at WSU is a strong line on my resume."

"Tutoring gives me a way to strengthen my own knowledge."

"The flexible hours let me work around my classes."

Academic Support Tutoring Centers

Be certain to use the free services and consider being a tutor yourself!

Basic Requirements To Apply To Be a Tutor:

GPA in good standing with WSU.

Grade of B+ or higher in the subject matter you'll be tutoring.

Name of faculty who would recommend you.

Interview with program coordinator.

How to Apply To Be a Tutor:

- Visit weber.edu/tutoring to learn more about the tutoring programs that are offered.
- Take a look at the qualifications required in the program for which you are interested in being a tutor.
- Go to jobs.weber.edu to create an account, apply for a position, and submit your application materials.
- Follow up by visiting the program coordinator to discuss the job.