EAO Headlines

ACT Prep Course
ACT exam dates are approaching and to help students become prepared and score higher, we are offering our three-day Spring ACT Prep Course for anyone wanting to take advantage of this great opportunity at no cost. Prep courses will be held on February 8, 15 and 22 in the WSU Elizabeth Hall Building.

- February 8: Mock ACT Exam from 8:00 am - 12:00 pm
- February 15 & 22: Review Sessions from 8:00 am - 10:00 am

To ensure that there are enough seats available, registration is required. To register, please visit www.weber.edu/eao.

State GEAR UP Family Night
On February 11 from 6:00 pm - 7:30 pm, State GEAR UP will be hosting a Financial Aid workshop for parents and families to attend for FREE. Advisors will discuss ways to on how to finance college and access financial aid. The event will be held at the WSU Davis Campus building D3. For more information, call (801)395-3547.

Community Events

Florida Folk Screening
Please join the WSU Center for Diversity & Unity Department in the screening of Florida Folk & The Tales They Do movie on February 4 in the WSU Wildcat Theater at 10:30 am. For more information regarding the event, please contact Adrienne Andrews at (801)626-7243.

WSU Major Fest/Wildcat Welcome
On February 5, Weber State University will be opening its doors to invite students and their families to learn more about the various majors, minors and other services in which the university has to offer. This event will be running for two sessions to offer convenience for school and work schedules:
- First Session: 8:30 AM - 11:30 AM
- Second Session: 3:30 PM - 6:00 PM

Shepherd Union Ballrooms

Stretch Your Bucks...Without Breaking Your Back
Cottage of Hope will be having their last Stretch Your Bucks class on February 6 at their location from 6 pm - 8 pm. Individuals will learn how to manage their personal finances and make future financial decisions that will benefit their lives. For more information, please refer to the attached flyer.

Vote for Latino Behavioral Heath Services
Latino Behavioral Health Services needs your help in voting for their organization to receive the Latino Chambers of Commerce award that will enable them to continue to provide free services to individuals with mental illness and their families through support, education and advocacy within the Hispanic community. To vote, go to the Premios A La Excelencia website.

Weber Family Resource Center
Check out the attached fliers to learn more about the services being provided through the Weber Family Resources Center.
Community Events

source Center and what they are aiming to do for families.

YMCA of Northern Utah

It may not be Summer yet, but YMCA of Northern Utah is already making their summer plans known to everyone. Due to a limited spots available for their June 8-13 camp out (Camp Roger), they are having an early bird registration. Deadline to register is February 28th, so hurry and book a spot for you and your family.

Another event to be excited about is the YMCA Kids’ Night Out event on February 14 from 6 PM - midnight for kids ages 4 - 12. Kids will be able to enjoy a pajama themed party with bedtime stories, crafts, and breakfast for dinner.

For more information, visit the YMCA Utah website: www.ymcautah.org

Stay Connected with Us

1122 University Circle
Ogden, UT 84408

Ph: (801)626-7006
Fax: (801)626-8768
Email: eao@weber.edu
Web: www.weber.edu/eao

Scholarship Announcements

Ogden Area Hispanic Chamber of Commerce Scholarship

The 2014 Scholarship application is available now! As a non-profit organization, the Ogden Area Hispanic Chamber of Commerce is devoted in providing opportunities to Hispanic/Latinos students who strive to make a difference within their education. This award is in recognition of academic and vocational achievement, leadership in school, community or other service activities. Students who show leadership qualities within their school, community and other entities, are encouraged to apply. To obtain an application, you may visit our webpage at www.weber.edu/eao. Deadline to submit all application documents is March 15.

Young Humanitarian Award

The Youthlinc Utah Young Humanitarian Award is a $5,000 college scholarship rewarded to an altruistic young person who strives to serve the local and global community. If you or someone you know is active in serving their community, please apply for this award. Aside from a $5,000 scholarship, three runner ups will receive $1,000 scholarship. Finalist will be announced at the Youthlinc Annual Benefit on May 17. Deadline to apply is March 19. To obtain a copy of the application and learn more about this award, visit www.weber.edu/eao.