Expressions of Civility Exhibit
January 8 – February 11, 2018
Stewart Library

Please create a piece of art, an essay, or poem to share your idea of how to answer one or more of these questions on civility.

- What does civility mean to you?
- What does civility look like at WSU? In the community/ Nationally, Globally
- What does disobedience look like, sound like, feel like?
- How does civility tie into ethical behavior and freedom of speech?
- Who does civility affect besides yourself?
- Who decides what is civil?
- What are the limits of civility?
- At what point does civility breakdown and why?
- How do you practice civility, and what does that look like?

Deadline for submission is December 20, 2017

Opening Reception in the Hetzel-Hoellein Room at the Stewart Library from 6-8 pm on January 8, 2018
Please Submit Work by 4:30 pm on December 19, 2017 to the attention of Wayne Huxhold at the Reference Desk at the Stewart Library. All work from Students, Faculty, Staff, and the Community will be accepted. Please send this completed entry form attached to your work.

Name _____________________________________________

☐ Student
☐ Faculty
☐ Staff
☐ Community Member

Department _____________________________________________

Title ______________________________________________

Form of Expression (i.e. painting, sculpture, essay) _____________________________________________

Any message you would like to share _________________________

________________________________________________________________________

________________________________________________________________________

________________________________________________________________________