Bachelor of Science in Criminal Justice—General Concentration

All Criminal Justice students are encouraged to meet with the faculty advisor at least annually for course and program advisement. A CJ advisor list and how to make an appointment is posted online at https://weber.edu/cj/New-CJAdvisors.html. The Social and Behavioral Science College advisors (https://weber.edu/SocialScience/advising.html) can answer questions about the University’s general education requirements.

Grade Requirements: A grade of “C” or better in all courses is required for this major in addition to an overall GPA of 2.5 or higher.

Program Requirements for BS Degree

Students obtaining a major in Criminal Justice are required to complete 46 credit hours in courses with a CJ prefix. Students are also required to complete a minor.

Core Courses Required (31 credit hours)
