WEBER STATE UNIVERSITY
Center for Community Engaged Learning
Stay on Campus

Joins us! Find out how Weber State Campus Housing can meet your needs!

1. A cool, new community concept
2. Two different housing options
3. Three new residence halls

University Village

University Village (UV) is home to our apartment-style community. All apartments are four bedroom, two bathroom homes. At University Village you’ll have the privacy of your own room, yet you can still enjoy the community aspect of sharing a kitchen and living room with three other students.

Wildcat Village

Stewart Wasatch Hall (SWH), Residence Halls 1 & 3 (RH1) (RH3)

Located in the heart of campus, Wildcat Village offers great amenities like a fitness center, restaurant, convenience store, group study spaces, lounges, shared kitchens, a volleyball court and fire pit. Wildcat Village offers a more traditional college experience where you can easily form study groups and make friendships that will last a lifetime.

Code Purple

Your safety while attending WSU is extremely important to us. The university maintains a campus alert system called Code Purple that provides notices about significant emergency situations on campus such as snow closures, power outages, gas leaks, or other potentially dangerous threats. We encourage you to sign-up for campus alerts at:

weber.edu/codepurple

Training

Because we take safety seriously, the university has purchased training materials including short informational videos that cover topics such as sexual assault, violence prevention, dating violence, domestic violence, stalking, alcohol abuse, and how to assist if you are a bystander. These materials are a helpful guide for safe practices on and off-campus. As a result, we expect all students, faculty and staff to complete this training. Go to:

portalapps.weber.edu/everfiSSO

Security Reports

The university also publishes an Annual Security Report and Fire Safety Report which provide information about crime statistics, crime prevention, alcohol and drug policies, fire statistics, etc. These reports can be found online at:

http://weber.edu/police/clery.html.

You may request a physical copy to be mailed by calling 801-626-7440.
how do I seek medical help?

Especially in the first 72 hours, medical concerns like pregnancy, sexually transmitted infections or injuries may be important to address. Treatment is still available after 72 hours and may put your mind at ease. There is a difference between getting treatment from a medical professional and having medical evidence collected for a possible investigation.

Evidence Collection
Evidence collection, often referred to as the “rape kit,” is done by a trained Sexual Assault Nurse Examiner. YCC and Safe Harbor advocates are available to meet you at the Northern Utah Forensic Examination Center to offer support and information. Through Crime Victim Reparation Program, you can have evidence collected even if you do not know whether or not you want to report the crime to the police. If you think there is a possibility that you will decide to report the assault to the police, it is best to get the forensic exam done as soon as possible. To make an appointment, contact YCC or Safe Harbor.

Medical Treatment
If you have injuries related to an assault and want treatment but no evidence collection, you may go to your primary care physician or the emergency room. Know that if you have significant physical injury, doctors may be required to report the assault to the police. If you are under 18, doctors may have to notify your parent(s) or guardian(s) and report to the police. You can ask about notification of outcomes.

Your primary care physician or Planned Parenthood of Ogden (801-679-7721) can also provide emergency contraception, STI testing and treatment.

what are my rights?

Sexual harassment, sexual assault, domestic violence, dating violence and stalking are violations of state and federal law as well as WSU policy. The Discrimination and Harassment policy can be found at: weber.edu/ppm/Policies/3-32_Discrimination Harassment.html. The Safety, Response and Reporting policy can be found at: http://www.weber.edu/ppm/Policies/5-36a_Safety_Response_and_Reporting_Policy.html.

Title IX prohibits sex discrimination (which includes sexual violence) in educational programs and activities. The Federal Campus Sexual Assault Victims’ Bill of Rights and Jeanne Clery Act outline procedural protections and notices that must be given to survivors and others. Under these laws, survivors must be notified of options for reporting, counseling and provide appropriate interim measures or accommodations (such as changing academic and living situations). Survivors have a right to an adequate, reliable and impartial investigation, and appropriate remedies. Disciplinary procedures must include equal opportunities for participation and notification of outcomes.

Non-confidential Resources:

what resources are available?

Non-confidential
The advocate Paige Davies (paigedavies1@weber.edu, 801-626-6372, SU132) works closely with the Title IX coordinator to ensure the survivor gets a fair and timely Title IX investigation. The advocate can support the survivor in an on-campus investigation, provide resources, safety planning and additional survivor-centered advocacy for academic modifications (including extra time for assignments, moving classes, excused absences, etc.).

04/2016
Immediately:
- Get to a safe place as soon as possible.
- If you are in immediate danger, call 911.
- If no immediate danger, decide whether to report the crime to police (delay can result in lost evidence).
- Try to preserve all physical evidence (may be possible to collect evidence up to five days after).
- Don’t shower, bathe or brush your teeth.
- Save clothing you were wearing in a paper bag.
- Do not rearrange, clean up anything or take out the garbage where assault occurred.
- Seek support and talk with someone you trust to get immediate support (friend, family, advisor).
- See resources section for more options.
- WSU advocate* (available during business hours): 801-626-6372
- Seek medical attention. Northern Utah Forensic Examination Center will connect you with trained nurses who can meet with you, collect evidence through a forensic rape exam, stabilize injuries, provide emergency contraception, and limited STD preventative medication. Connect with them by contacting YCC or Safe Harbor.

Survivors of sexual assault or violence can choose how to report the incident. This may include an internal university investigation, a criminal investigation or both. Survivors can also choose not to bring charges against the accused. The advocate* can help you assess these options.

Title IX Investigation
If you were assaulted, harassed or discriminated against by anyone (including a student, faculty or staff) based on your perceived or actual gender, sexual orientation or gender identity expression and/or sexual orientation, you can report the incident to the Title IX coordinator or to the advocate.* You can also report to the Title IX office if you are the victim of domestic violence, dating violence or stalking, whether it occurred on or off campus.

The Title IX coordinator will respond promptly and effectively to allegations of sexual violence and will work with you to determine next steps. Where appropriate, the Title IX coordinator will conduct an adequate, reliable and impartial investigation by reviewing all available evidence.

The Title IX coordinator will then make a determination, which will be sent to the appropriate Vice President or Dean of Students for review and initiation of disciplinary proceedings, as appropriate. Decisions may be appealed as per university policy. Further details about these processes and time frames can be found in PPM 3-32, PPM 6-22 and PPM 5-36a, which are available at weber.edu/ppm.

While the Title IX coordinator investigates the report, survivors have the right to interim measures, where reasonably available, including a no-contact directive, academic accommodations, medical and mental health services, assistance in finding alternative housing, assistance in arranging alternative employment, providing an escort, transportation accommodations and assistance finding community resources. The Title IX coordinator and the advocate* work together to provide these services.

Anyone involved in a Title IX investigation may be granted anonymity or leniency from disciplinary actions for violations of the Student Alcohol and Drug Policy, on a case by case basis.

Report to Police
You have the option of reporting to law enforcement. The Title IX officer or advocate can assist you to do so, if you so choose. If you choose to report the incident to WSU police, an officer will take a statement from you, including a description of the accused, the location, witnesses and what happened before and after. You may have a support person or the advocate* with you during the interview.

Filing a report does not commit you to pursue an investigation. To the extent possible, the WSU police will respect your decision and keep your identity confidential. Reports are counted and disclosed in the annual crime statistics for the institution and do not identify the victim or the accused.

Non-imminent threats of violence may be referred to the Strategic Threat Assessment & Response Team for review, as appropriate under PPM 3-67.

If you have experienced a sexual assault, you may be faced with many decisions to make about your own physical and emotional well-being as well as filing reports through the university or law enforcement.

The information in this brochure will provide a good overview but it may be helpful to speak with a counselor about your options. This can be an important part of the healing process.

While you may want to talk to someone you trust, such as a friend or family member, campus resources are available. When you seek help, first ask what level of confidentiality they can provide. Many survivors seek out a supervisor, professor or individual in a position of trust. Most of these people have an obligation to report to the Title IX coordinator, who manages complaints of sexual discrimination, harassment and violence.

Some things you might discuss:
- What you feel and think about the incident
- How to get information about what you want to do
- How to manage your academics or work
- How to manage your finances
- Get medical treatment
- Seek alternative housing options
- Report to the Title IX coordinator or WSU Police

SEXUAL HARASSMENT is unwelcome conduct of a sexual nature based on sex, sexual orientation or gender identity expression. It can include, but is not limited to unwelcome sexual advances, requests for sexual favors or other verbal or nonverbal conduct of a sexual nature (which can include rape, sexual assault, sexual exploitation, dating violence, domestic violence and stalking).

SEXUAL VIOLENCE is a severe form of sexual harassment, and refers to physical sexual acts perpetrated against a person’s will or where a person is incapable of giving consent, including but not limited to rape, sexual assault, sexual battery, sexual coercion or similar acts.

SEXUAL ASSAULT is actual or attempted sexual contact without that person’s consent and includes:
- Intentional touching of another person’s intimate parts or other intentional sexual contact without consent.

CONSENT must be voluntary, mutual and can be withdrawn at any time. There is no consent when force (expressed or implied), coercion, intimidation, threats or duress are used. Silence or absence of resistance does not imply consent. Past consent to sexual activity does not imply future consent. If a person is mentally or physically incapacitated or impaired there is no consent.

DATING VIOLENCE means violence committed by a person who is or has been in a social relationship of a romantic or intimate nature with the victim.

DOMESTIC VIOLENCE is violence committed (a) by a current or former spouse or intimate partner; (b) By a person with whom the victim shares a child in common; (c) By a person who is cohabitating with or has cohabitated with the victim as a spouse or intimate partner; (d) By a person similarly situated to a spouse of the victim under the domestic or family violence laws; (e) By any other person against an adult or youth victim who is protected from that person’s acts under the domestic or family violence laws.

STALKING means engaging in a course of conduct directed at a specific person that would cause a reasonable person to fear for the person’s safety or the safety of others, or suffer substantial emotional distress. Course of conduct means two or more acts, including, but not limited to, acts which the stalker directly, indirectly or through third parties, by any action, method, device or means follows, monitors, observes, surveils, threatens, intimidates, harasses or communicates to or about, a person, or interferes with a person’s property.

NO CONTACT DIRECTIVE is a directive that mandates the accused (if a WSU student, faculty or staff) not to contact the survivor in any way, including electronic or direct communication. The order also includes third parties acting on the person’s behalf.

Some of these definitions are an explanation of definitions in University PPM 5-36a and PPM 3-32. See the policies for further information. Learn more at: weber.edu/titleix

Rights and Options
I think I was sexually assaulted …

When can I seek medical attention?
Ideally within 72 hours, even if you do not want to file a police report. A health care provider can:

• Check you for injuries
• Discuss concerns such as sexually transmitted infections, HIV and pregnancy

• Talk with you about evidence collection (called a Sexual Assault Forensic exam, it’s anonymous, free and does not require a commitment to report)

When can I go to the police?
Any time.
Weber State University Police are available 24/7 to discuss your options or take a report. You can:

• Ask for a victim/witness officer
  Officers are prepared to believe you, listen without judgment and provide resources
• Request to have a support person or advocate with you

WSU Police: 801-626-6460

When can I report the assault to the university?
Any time.
Administrative investigations are conducted through Barry Gomberg Title IX coordinator (801-626-6240). You can also contact the advocate, Paige Davies (801-626-6372).

Accommodations may include:

• No-contact orders
• Modifications to living or work arrangements
• Class schedule
• Adjustments

When can I seek additional confidential support?
Any time.
Counseling & Psychological Services (801-626-6406) are available to support you, listen to you and believe you. They are open Monday - Thursday: 8 a.m. - 5 p.m. and Fridays: 8 a.m. - 4:30 p.m.

Off-campus confidential resources include:

• YCC of Ogden - ychope.org
  801-392-7273 (24/7)
• Safe Harbor of Davis County - safeharborhope.org, 801-444-9161 (24/7)

Frequently Asked Questions

Q: By enrolling in ROTC are you joining the Army?

A: No. Students who enroll in ROTC do not join the Army. They are simply taking an ROTC elective class for which they receive credit. You do not have to go to “boot camp”.

Q: What do students expect to learn by taking ROTC?

A: Quite simply, leadership and management skills needed to become an Army officer, or to apply towards a successful civilian career.

Q: What makes ROTC different from regular college management courses?

A: Students in ROTC learn through a unique program that involves both classroom and “live” situations. For instance, an ROTC student might be found leading classmates through adventure training on “tactical missions”.

Campus Terms and Definitions

Academic Advising: is available guidance and support in degree planning, course selection, campus resources, and academic success that is provided by authorized, trained WSU advisors representing one of WSU’s academic departments.

Academic Warning/Probation/Suspension occurs if your cumulative WSU grade point average (GPA) falls below a 2.0, you will not be “good academic standing.” If you do not bring your GPA back up to good standing, you will eventually be put on suspension. Seek help from campus resources, including your academic advisor.

Adjunct Faculty are contracted by WSU to teach part-time.

Alumni are former WSU students.

Articulation/Transcription is the process by which transfer courses are evaluated for equivalency to WSU courses.

Catalog year indicates the academic year in which you were admitted or in which you declared your major and identifies the courses you need to complete and policies you need to follow to graduate. You have 3 years to complete an associate degree under a declared Catalog, and 6 years to complete a bachelor degree. If you do not complete your degree within that time frame, then you would need to be bumped up to the next active Catalog Year, and fulfill any different requirements of that newer Catalog Year.

CatTracks is WSU’s degree evaluation/audit tool available through your eWeber portal. This tool is a report of your progress toward major and degree completion. Consult your academic advisor for clarifications and explanations.

Convocation is a complement to WSU’s Spring Commencement (University graduation ceremony). Each WSU college (e.g., Arts & Humanities) and interdisciplinary program not housed within a WSU college (e.g., General Studies and Bachelor of Integrated Studies) hosts a formal ceremony to celebrate graduation from that program.

Co-requisite refers to two courses that must be taken during the same semester.

Course Cancelation occurs if you drop a class by the cancellation deadline (usually during the first three weeks of a semester) and is deleted from your transcript. Depending on when you cancel, you may still owe tuition. View the Tuition Refund Schedule online to learn when full, partial, and no refunds will be granted.

Course withdrawal occurs if you drop a course by the withdrawal deadline around mid-semester, a “W” will appear on your transcript and does not effect your GPA. You will not be eligible for any tuition refund. Before withdrawing, contact your academic advisor and any funding sources you have so you are aware of the potential negative impacts of withdrawing before you do it.

Credit Hour or Credit is the term we use to represent the in-class time commitment. For a three-credit class, you’ll spend approximately three hours in that class each week. For every hour in class, you should spend at least two hours outside of class on homework and studying, but you may need significantly more time for some classes.
Deans are in charge of a WSU area. At WSU we have college deans (e.g., the Dean of the College of Science), a dean over Continuing Education, and a dean of students.

Developmental courses are courses that prepare you for subsequent university-level courses. These courses are not calculated into your overall Weber State GPA or your total credit hours.

Elective credits are courses that earn you credits but do not fulfill a major, minor, or general education requirement.

eWeber/student portal is WSU’s interface with online WSU processes. Use the portal to register, pay tuition and fees, access online courses and your WSU email account, and much more.

Faculty member refers to full-time college teachers although it is sometimes used to also include part-time college teachers.

FAFSA stands for The Free Application for Federal Student Aid. This form is required for any student who wants to be considered for federal aid of any kind (e.g., grants, loans, and work study).

Fees are a section you will see, listed as “student fees”, on your tuition bill, which covers your use of many WSU student services and is the basis for the WSU Student Association’s (WSUSA) budget. Thanks to the student fees, most WSU resources (e.g., the WSU gym and most Health Center Services) are free to students.

Financial Aid is the funding (e.g., scholarships, grants, work study, and loans) that helps you pay for school. Know the difference between aid that does not need to be paid back and funding that needs to be paid back without or with interest.

Full-time student means you are declared in a WSU associate and/or bachelor degree and registered for at least 12 credit hours during a given semester. Note that full-time tuition is charged for 11 or more credits in a semester and if you take more than 18 credits during a semester, additional tuition is charged. The full WSU tuition table is published on the Bursar’s website and payment plans are also available.

Grade point average (GPA) is an overall measurement of your academic achievement in college and is calculated as the total number of grade points received over a given period divided by the total number of credits awarded.

Grants are similar to scholarships in that you don’t need to pay them back if you abide by their conditions. Grants are often awarded based on financial need or in support of research and other projects.

Hybrid courses at WSU are taught through a combination of in-class and on-line instruction. Most WSU hybrids are accelerated, meaning that students complete courses in half of a semester.

Major refers to the main focus of your studies and will appear on your diploma. Up to half of your courses will be in your major.
Minor refers to the secondary focus of your studies, and usually requires fewer courses than your major. Some majors require a minor.

Office Hours are set regular times each week where professors meet with students and/or walk-in appointments throughout each semester they are teaching. Often, if you can’t make it to an instructor’s office hours, you can arrange to meeting with him/her to schedule an alternative time.

Part-time status means you are an associate and/or bachelor degree student registered for fewer than 12 credits during a semester. Note that for tuition purposes, part-time is defined as 10 or fewer credits. View WSU’s tuition table on the Bursar’s website for information on part-time versus full-time tuition costs.

Pre-requisite refers to a required course that you must successfully complete prior to being eligible to take another course or program.

Registration refers to the process of signing up for your courses.

Residency hours are credit hours taken through WSU. For a WSU associate degree, you must complete a minimum of 20 credits through WSU. For a WSU bachelor degree, the requirement is 30 credits.

Service Learning is a form of education that incorporates volunteering and/or immersion.

Student Loans is money your school (or a bank, or even a relative) provides to you with the understanding that you will pay it back. For some loans, you don’t pay interest, for some there is no interest until you graduate, and for some there are terms connected to post-graduation plans (e.g., some loans are forgiven over time for some teachers and doctors in some financing arrangements).

Supplemental Instruction (SI) is a resource available for some courses. SI’s are optional outside-of-class study sessions led by a student who previously succeeded in that course and is trained to lead study groups.

Syllabus is a written course outline provided to students during the first week of the semester. It contains important course information including instructor contact information, course policies, learning outcomes, and usually a course schedule.

Transcript refers to your WSU student academic record that is updated after your final course grades are posted each semester. You can print an unofficial transcript through you eWeber Student portal or order an official transcript from the Records Office.

Tuition is the cost of your classes. Tuition is based on the number of credits for which you are registered. There is a per-credit cost for part-time studies (1-10 credits), a full-time tuition cost (11 to 18 credits), and overload tuition (19 and more). Student fees are charged in addition to tuition to support student support services and student government.

Work Study is part of Federal financial aid, and you may secure an on-campus position (a small number are off-campus) specifically designated as work study. Your earnings and number of work hours are determined by your specific award.
