

RESIDENTIAL AIDE

$11.54/Hour Part-Time; Available shifts swing, grave, weekend, and holiday.

○ POSITION DESCRIPTION:

- Residential Aides actively monitor and observe Weber Human Services clients, dispense medications, direct group activities, perform client admissions and discharges, complete daily tasks as assigned related to meals, facility cleanliness, organization, and documentation.
- Provide general supervision and ensuring the safety and well-being of each resident in the facilities.
- Enforce approved residential rules and Weber Human Services policies and procedures.
- Clearly document any concerns for each client.
- Notify emergency crisis on-call worker and then supervisor should circumstances necessitate immediate attention and/or intervention.

○ MINIMUM REQUIREMENTS:

- High School graduate or equivalent.
- Must have one of the following certifications or licenses upon hire or at least 60 days post hire date: CPR, 1st Aid, and MANDT.
- Must have a working understanding and experience working with adults in the substance abuse and mental health fields.
- Valid Utah Driver's License in good standing since the position may require driving for the agency.

○ CURRENT OPENINGS:

- Crisis Transition Unit: The CTU is a 16 bed facility for individuals that are 18 and older with chronic mental illness and co-occurring substance use. The CTU is a short-term facility with residents staying anywhere from a couple of days to a couple of weeks; however we do have some clients that stay longer due to their individualized treatment needs.
- Addiction and Recovery Men's Residential: Men's residential is a 29 bed facility for adult men in need of some level of residential services due to a substance use disorder. The program's goal is to support men in abstinence from using illegal drugs and alcohol and to improve their social functioning.
- Women's Tranquility Home: The tranquility home is a 16 bed residential facility for women and their children. It is a compassionate learning environment where women heal and progress through their personal recovery paths. Preparing each individual to embrace their new lifestyle and develop skills in safety, stability, and balance.