

English as a Second Language
Teaching Minor/Endorsement
Weber State University

The English as a Second Language teaching minor/endorsement is available at Weber State University. Undergraduate and graduate students seeking degrees in elementary, secondary or special education can add this endorsement to their licensure.

The required courses are as follows:

| WSU Course number | Course title | Term(s) offered |
|--|--|--|
| Educ 4250/MED 6250 (3 credits) | Second Language Acquisition: Theories and Implementation | Fall (each year) Summer (odd years) |
| Educ 4270/MED 6270 (3 credits) | Literacy Strategies for Teaching English Language Learners | Spring (each year) Summer (even numbered years) |
| Educ 4740 (1 credit) or MED 6240 (2 credits) | Building Partnerships with ESL/Bilingual Families Foundations of Teaching for Cultural and Language Differences | Spring, Summer |
| Engl 4410/ MENG 6410* (3 credits) * FL 4400 may be substituted for this course, especially for foreign language majors and dual language immersion endorsement candidates | Strategies and Methodology of Teaching ESL | Summer 2023 & 2024 |
| Engl 4420/MENG 6420 (3 credits) | English Phonology and Syntax for ESL Teachers | Summer 2023 & 2024 Fall 2023 |
| Engl 4450/MENG 6450 (3 credits) | ESL/Bilingual Assessment: Theories, Methods and Practices | Summer 2023 & 2024 |
| Educ 5770 (2 credits) | Field Experience in ESL/Bilingual Education | Fall, Spring |

(updated December 2022)

For more information contact:

Denise Wright
denisewright@weber.edu
ED 230A
(801) 626-6636

Angie Collinwood
angiecollinwood@weber.edu
ED 230B
(801) 626-6309

Dr. David R. Byrd
davidbyrd@weber.edu
ED 322
(801) 626-7412