Grammar practice doesn’t have to be boring!

Use games to foster
- Collaboration
- Peer-teaching
- Re-teaching moments
- Competitive excitement

Some game topics:
- Commas
- Run-on sentences and fragments
- Pronouns
- Capitalization
- Spelling/confused words
- Verbs and subjects
- Subject-verb agreement
- Apostrophes
- Prepositional phrases
- Parts of speech
- Dependent and independent clauses

Plus... Make reading, writing, and critical thinking fundamentals fun!

Use games/exercises to foster
- Better reading strategies
- Improved reading comprehension
- Application of writing process
- Oral communication of ideas
- Increased critical thinking skills
- Vocabulary skills

Some game/exercise topics and titles:
- Would You Rather?
- Entry/Exit Tickets
- Think-Pair-Share
- Pass the “Mic”
- Critical Thinking and Reading Jigsaw
- Build Your Vocabulary

Use these games and activities for practice, review, or both!